Mayor's Report

Mayor Eaton asked councilmembers to keep the family of former Councilman Lamar Hundley in their thoughts and prayers, as he passed away this week. Also, keep Duanne Puckett and her family in your prayers as she is going through difficult health issues. Mayor Eaton thanked Public Works for a terrific job of snow removal. Mayor Eaton also thanked Police and the Fire Department for their efforts during the inclement weather. A special thank you to Chief Bruce Gentry and Sheriff Mark Moore for setting up a warming station for those in need during this winter-time period.

Council Reports

Councilmember Hardesty wanted to give thanks to the First Responders. Councilmember Ethington thanked Public Works for their continuous efforts during the winter storm. He thanked the Fire Department for conducting their Ice Rescue Training, and Sgt. Cable for working with him on the police training simulator. Councilmember Zoeller brought up concern regarding trash pick-up being cancelled this week due to the winter storm and advised that regular pick-up should begin next week.
